

TITLE

SUMMARY OF ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS

Naval Weapons Station
Seal Beach Detachment Concord
Concord, California

LEGEND

Endangered, Threatened, and Other Sensitive Species (INRMP/University of Arizona)

Endangered, Threatened, and Other Sensitive Species (CNDDDB)

California Red-Legged Frog Known Occurrence Area (CNDDDB)

Burrowing Owl Known Occurrence Area (CNDDDB)

California Tiger Salamander Known Occurrence Area (CNDDDB)

Potential Tiger Salamander Upland Habitat (City of Concord)

Wetland

Solid Waste Management Unit in Installation Restoration Program

Active Installation Restoration Sites

No Further Action and Transferred Installation Restoration Sites

Potential MEC Areas of Concern

Concord Fault

Mayton Fault

An area inundated by 100 year flood for which no BEEs have been established

Streams and Creeks

Area of Historical Interest

Slope Percent (%)

Archaeological Potential

Liquefaction Potential

Road Classification

Buildings

Inland Area

NWSSBD Concord

Special Status Species

1 --- California Red-legged Frog

2 --- California Tiger Salamander

3 --- Loggerhead Shrike

4 --- Suisun Song Sparrow

5 --- Golden Eagle

6 --- Burrowing Owls

7 --- Northern Harrier

8 --- Northwestern Pond Turtle

9 --- California Horned Lark

10 --- Cooper's Hawk

11 --- Yellow Warbler

NOTES & SOURCES

Coordinate System: Stateplane, California III
NAD 83, feet

Data Sources: NAVWPNSTA Seal Beach Det Concord GIS
Concord INRMP (Tetra Tech 2002),
Concord ICRMP (2002),
City of Concord (2006), CDM (2003),
Department of Fish & Games (CNDDDB 2005), DoN (1999)

Internal Working Document -
Not for Release under FOIA

0 2,000 4,000 Feet

0 500 1,000 Meters

N

FIGURE

4-16a

W:/sd05/aquatic/navybrac/mxd/concord_summary.mxd W:/sd05/aquatic/navybrac/plot/out/Figure4-16.pdf April 18, 2006 DWN: YYL CHKD: BS